

CAPTURING the SPIRIT OAKLAND CEMETERY

2009 HALLOWEEN TOURS

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 23  SATURDAY, OCTOBER 24

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 25

*H*istoric Oakland Cemetery receives many visitors each day, but only at Halloween do its gates stay open after dark. Witness the magnificent final resting place of Atlanta's sons and daughters during "Capturing the Spirit of Oakland" 2009 Halloween Tours. Join us this year and hear first-hand accounts about our city's past, narrated by a host of Oakland's eternal "residents." You'll also see gorgeous, candlelit mausoleums during this one-of-a-kind annual tradition. Bring a flashlight and comfortable walking shoes. Enjoy refreshments for sale and browse Oakland's Museum Shop for unique finds.

Advanced ticket purchases only.

$15 Adults, $5 Children 12 and Under

Guided tours start at 5:30 pm each night at the Bell Tower and last approximately one hour. You must have your ticket to enter the cemetery. To ensure all ticket holders are accommodated, tours are sold in timed increments, and a limited number of tickets are available. To buy tickets, visit: www.oaklandcemetery.com/capturingHalloween.html

Limited free parking is available near the main entrance and on neighboring streets. Carpooling taking MARTA to King Memorial Station is recommended.

There is no rain date. In case of a severe weather cancellation, ticket holders will receive via the mail, a free pass for a future guided tour at Oakland.
